News from your Shropshire Councillor Claire Wild

Her Majesty's Platinum Jubilee

What a fantastic opportunity for us all to come together at the many planned events to celebrate our Queen's seventy years on the throne.

In 1927, at the age of 21 Her Majesty said in a radio broadcast "I declare before you all, that my whole life whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to your service". Her complete dedication to duty and her devotion to our country is beyond reproach and we should consider ourselves very fortunate that we have a monarch of such standing.

The Jubilee Bank Holiday is a wonderful way of us showing Her Majesty our gratitude and also coming together as a community to enjoy each other's company after what has been such a difficult couple of years .

Is it just me or does the Silver Jubilee only seem a few years ago??

I hope to see many of you and join in with the celebrations at what will be such a historic event, one that I doubt will ever be repeated.

Parish Council Meetings

The next Berrington Parish Council meeting will be held on Thursday 16th June where, alongside other matters, we will be discussing the installation of a signalised crossing in Cross Houses.

We usually hold our meetings on the 1st Thursday of the month but we are having to fit in with our interim clerk whist Lorna is on sick leave. We certainly wish her a speedy recovery and look forward to seeing her back with us very soon.

Please contact me if you any help or advice.

Best wishes,

Claire

Blessing of the Animals Service on Sunday 24th April - a huge success with the warmest weather so far this year. Hopefully this be an annual event. Thanks to Laura, Ben and all the Dixon Family for allowing us to hold this at Home Farm.

Sad news - Derrick Evans died on Sunday 24th April and his funeral at St.Eata's was on Tuesday 24th May. Derrick was a long time member of our congregation and touched the lives of all who knew him. He was Standard Bearer for The British Legion for many years and always assisted at our Remembrance Service. Rest eternal grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Our deepest sympathy to his family.

Congratulations to Mrs Alice May Jones

May was 100 years old on 16th April when she attended a surprise party at the Mytton & Mermaid Hotel with 25 family members and friends, proudly holding her birthday card from the Queen. She lived at the Manse, Uffington and in later years moved to Manse Lodge. Married to Thomas Morgan Jones, the River Severn Water Bailiff [Fisheries] for Shrewsbury & Atcham & The Weir. They had 3 sons, May is a proud grandmother and great grandmother. Good wishes from all around the area who know her and hoping she has many more happy and healthy years to come.

Her Majesty's Jubilees - the story so far

The Queen's reign has been punctuated by an unprecedented series of milestones. Her Majesty's jubilees have provided cause for celebration and reflection throughout the remarkable years since her Accession.

The Silver Jubilee

In 1977 The Queen's Silver Jubilee was marked with celebrations throughout the UK and Commonwealth. During the summer months The Queen embarked on a large scale tour, having decided that she wished to mark her jubilee by meeting as many of her people as possible. No other Sovereign had visited so much of Britain in the course of just three months - the six jubilee tours in the UK and Northern Ireland covered 36 counties. The home tours began in Glasgow on 17 May, with greater crowds than the city had ever seen before. The tours continued throughout England and Wales - in Lancashire over a million people turned out on one day - before culminating in a visit to Northern Ireland.

Official overseas visits were also made to Western Samoa, Australia, New Zealand, Tonga, Fiji, Tasmania, Papua New Guinea, Canada and the West Indies. During the year it was estimated that The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh travelled 56,000 miles.

The climax of the national celebrations came in early June. On the evening of Monday 6 June, The Queen lit a bonfire beacon at Windsor which started a chain of beacons across the country. On Tuesday 7 June, vast crowds saw The Queen drive in the Gold State Coach to St Paul's Cathedral for a Service of Thanksgiving attended by heads of state from around the world and former prime ministers of the UK.

Afterwards The Queen and members of the Royal Family attended a lunch at the Guildhall, in which The Queen made a speech. She declared, 'My Lord Mayor, when I was twenty-one I pledged my life to the service of our people and I asked for God's help to make good that vow. Although that vow was made in my salad days, when I was green in judgement, I do not regret nor retract one word of it.'

An estimated 500 million people watched on television as the procession returned down the Mall. Back at Buckingham Palace, The Queen made several balcony appearances. Street parties and village parties started up all over the country: in London alone 4,000 were reported to have been held.

The Golden Jubilee

A packed programme of events took place in 2002 to celebrate fifty years of The Queen's reign. Six key Jubilee themes shaped events: Celebration, Community, Service, Past and future, Giving thanks and Commonwealth.

The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh undertook extensive tours of the Commonwealth and the UK, leading to an extraordinarily busy year for the royal couple.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness visited Jamaica, New Zealand, Australia and Canada as well as every region of the UK, from Falmouth in Cornwall to the Isle of Skye.

The central focus for the year was the Jubilee weekend in June 2002 which began with a classical music concert in the gardens at Buckingham Palace. There was a Jubilee Church Service at St George's Chapel in Windsor and a National Service of Thanksgiving at St Paul's Cathedral which followed a Ceremonial

Procession from Buckingham Palace. Events culminated in a pop concert at Buckingham Palace with performers including Paul McCartney, Bryan Adams, Elton John and Shirley Bassey. The evening ended with a spectacular fireworks display and The Queen lighting the National Beacon, the last in a string of 2,006 beacons which had been lit in a chain across the Commonwealth.

The Diamond Jubilee

The Diamond Jubilee was marked with a spectacular central weekend and a series of regional tours throughout the UK and Commonwealth.

The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh travelled as widely as possible across England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, visiting every region during 2012 whilst other members of the Royal Family visited all of the Commonwealth realms (countries where The Queen is Head of State) between them. Visits included The Prince of Wales and The Duchess of Cornwall in Australia, Canada, New Zealand and Papua New Guinea and The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge in Tuvalu.

The central weekend began with The Queen's visit to the Epsom Derby on the Saturday. On the Sunday, 'Big Jubilee Lunches' were held across the UK: building on the already popular 'Big Lunch' initiative, people were encouraged to share lunch with neighbours and friends as part of the Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

The Thames Diamond Jubilee Pageant also took place on the Sunday, with up to 1,000 boats assembled on the Thames from across the UK, the Commonwealth and around the world. The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh travelled in the Royal Barge which formed the centrepiece of the flotilla.

On the Monday, a host of famous faces came together to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee against the backdrop of Buckingham Palace for a concert organised by Take That singer and songwriter Gary Barlow for the BBC. Performers included Will.i.am, Stevie Wonder, Grace Jones and Kylie Minogue.

Following the concert, The Queen lit the National Beacon: one of a network of 2,012 Beacons which were lit by communities and individuals throughout the UK, Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and the Commonwealth.

The Diamond Jubilee weekend culminated with a day of celebrations in central London, including a service at St Paul's Cathedral followed by two receptions, a lunch at Westminster Hall, a Carriage Procession to Buckingham Palace and finally a Balcony appearance, Flypast, and Feu de Joie.

Longest Reigning Monarch

On 9th September 2015 The Queen became Britain's Longest Reigning Monarch.

The day was treated as any other day as The Queen and Prince Philip travelled by steam train from Edinburgh to Tweedbank, where she formally opened the new Scottish Borders Railway, although she did refer to the milestone in her speech saying:

The Sapphire Jubilee

6 February 2017 marked 65 years since The Queen acceded to the throne, becoming the first British Monarch to mark their Sapphire Jubilee.

As is usual on Accession Day, Her Majesty spent the day privately at Sandringham.

News from Christ Church C.E. Primary School

Preparing, Sowing, Growing

Welcome to our School!

It is the time of year when we welcome new families to school. Offer Day saw 25 children invited to join us in Reception. They will start their journey with us over the next few weeks as they come into school for transition sessions, and we can't wait to get to know them! Children in our school belong to a big family – the photo shows our Reception children having fun at playtime (dressed as mini-beasts) with some of our oldest children.

Next half term all our classes will have a Commonwealth theme. This will link really well with the Platinum Jubilee and the Commonwealth Games being held in Birmingham. It will give the children an opportunity to learn about the history and geography of the Commonwealth and increase their understanding of the diversity of our population in the UK and the links we have to other areas. As part of this learning we are linking up with Much Wenlock's 'Get a Word in Edgeways' festival being held 8th-10th July – it looks full of fun, events, performances and storytelling for all ages.

Forthcoming Events

In the first half term most of our school events are happening in the school day. We will be having a Platinum Jubilee Celebration in the afternoon at which we will be welcoming parents, grandparents and wider family on Thursday 26th May from 2pm. We hope to plant a special tree to commemorate this event, donated by Cressage WI. Any local residents who would like to join in with tea, cakes and games are very welcome – please just ring the School Office to book in. We will ask everyone to park considerately and this event will be over by 4pm.

Our Sports Day is on the morning of Tuesday 28th June. This will cause extra traffic in the village and we will ask parents to park considerately.

Leavers Events include a special celebration of our Y6s on Tuesday 19th July at 6pm which will only involve their families. A larger end of term event on Friday 15th July in the evening will be a summer party on the field for all school families and friends.

Would you like to find out more about our school...?

We are always happy to show prospective parents around school. Please contact the School Office on 01952 510383 or email admin@christchurch.shropshire.sch.uk for more details
